ETHICS IN HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

As Human Resource Professionals we have a Code of Ethics to live up to in our daily work.

Let's explore the attributes of an ethical human resource management environment and address the following questions:

- What does being an ethical human resource professional look like?
- Why is Ethics important to human resource professionals?
- What role does ethics play in our relationship with our business partners?
- What role does ethics play in our decision-making processes?
- What influence does personal biases play in ethical decision making?

Participants will leave the workshop with practical application processes for ethical human resource management behaviour.

Our Presenters/Facilitators:

Holly Hobbs, IPMA-ACP

Glenn Saunders, IPMA-ACP

Both Facilitators have many years of experience at a senior and executive level in both HR and management fields. Both have a passion for not only connecting with individuals, but also helping them grow in their career. Both receive great feedback for their knowledge and ability to engage the participants.
